

CINDY COMBS

CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER, GRMM

CONTACT

Address:

2200 North Loop West
#230, Houston, Texas
77018

Website:

grmmhotelinvestmentfund.com

Email:

CCOMBS@GRMMHOTELFUND.COM

CINDY COMBS

CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER, GRMM

ABOUT

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE CFO

Acumaxum LLC – Dec 22 - Present

Providing CFO level, bookkeeping and payroll service to small to medium sized business across the US. Specializing in oil and gas, construction, real estate, non-profit and various others. We help to develop cash flow forecast, financial forecast, price per employee and job and special projects.

Project Consultant

UHY Consulting – Oct 22 – Present

Providing support to accounting division for client based in Miami with several subsidiaries. Streamlined the reconciliation process and helped the client get prepared for the annual audit. In addition, provided financial transformation tools to help client perform reconciliations more efficiently.

Founder

CK Business Consulting & Tax– Feb 15 to Present

Providing CFO level, bookkeeping and payroll service to small to medium sized business across the US. Specializing in oil and gas, construction, real estate, non-profit and various others. We help to develop cash flow forecast, financial forecast, price per employee and job and special projects. Additional services include personal and business tax returns to include S and C Corp and partnership.

EXPERIENCE

Controller/HR Manager

Accurity Qualified Analytics – April 19 to August 21

Accurity Qualified Analytics specializes in litigation expert witness for residential and commercial accounts across the world. We also have partner companies which deal in property management accounting and residential real estate appraisals. Oversee all accounting and HR related matters and work close with owners in additional reporting for investors. Book intercompany entries between companies to ensure books are balanced prior to reviewing consolidation. Month end and year end reporting done timely and reported to franchise. Company is selling and reducing staff due to COVID.

Controller

O'Connor & Associates, LLC – May 17 to March 19

O'Connor & Associates is the largest privately held company in Houston handling property tax remediation and litigation and handling commercial and residential appraisals. Solely responsible for handling all the accounting for multiple entities, handling all bank reporting, and working with India team to ensure all work is performed accurate. Implement new processes and programs to reduce cost by 25%. High volume of intercompany reconciliations and reviews between 32 companies every month. Established a simplified process to ensure timely month end close. Worked close with India and the back office to ensure procedures and policies were followed. My position was moved to India and the reason I obtained new employment.

Controller – Interim

Syntal Capital Partners – Midland, TX- October 16 to December 16

Syntal Capital Partners is an independent, SEC registered investment management firm in the Permian Basin. As a key partner in the executive team, I was responsible for overseeing the family office division of the office and the daily operations of the accounting department. We worked closely with the trading team to ensure the assets of the trustee were managed correctly and investments were timely moved to cover day – to- day transactions.

Controller

CINDY K. COMBS cindy@pbbcts.com
(713) 445-6969

AggieTech Energy Services – Midland, TX- March 15 to September 16

AggieTech Energy Services is the leading oil field service provide for new pumping units and providing service to existing pumping units in the Permian Basin. As a key partner in the executive team, I'm responsible for overseeing the accounting department and reporting to executives and the bank the monthly financials. Primarily focused on intercompany and consolidations. In addition, I also play a vital role in improving processes with the accounting, HR and purchasing division.

Controller/CFO

Kevin Butler & Associates--Midland, TX--Jan 14 to Mar 15

Kevin O Butler & Associates is a privately held company located in Midland, TX. He is the owner and operator of various oil and gas interest across West Texas, New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma and North Dakota. As a key partner in the executive team, I'm responsible for financial reporting, treasury management, planning, human resources, IT, office administration and all accounting and joint interest billings. Review all compliance reporting done with the railroad commission and required filings. Director of Accounting/HR

Controller

T-REX Engineering & Construction--Houston, TX--May 11 to December 13

T-Rex is a privately held company located in Houston, TX. They are becoming one of the lead EPC, engineering and fabrication companies in the energy industry. The company is approximately $40M in revenue and plans to grow tremendously over the next five years. Being a key partner in the management team responsible for financial reporting, treasury management, planning and human resources within the organization. Coordinate the annual operating budget process and provide the monthly actual vs. budget analysis package. Supervise staff of 10 employees.

Sr. Accounting Manager/Accounting Manager

Forum Energy Technologies-Houston, TX-Feb 09 to May 11

A publicly traded company on the NYSE serving to global oilfield product companies, serving the subsea, drilling, completion, production, and infrastructure market. FET is a leading global manufacturer of mission critical, complex, stocked, and custom oilfield products and related after-market technical services, for use onshore and offshore. Started the organization before FET acquired Triton Group with responsibilities of financial reporting, treasury management, and intercompany for thirteen subsidiaries which included foreign currency booking. Management of internal and external audits and ensured timely resolution to findings as well as develop work plan for audit readiness. Key team member during the acquisition and instrumental in streamlining consolidated reporting. Supervised staff of seven employees.

Controller

Strategic Materials- Houston, TX - Oct 08 to Feb 09

The largest glass recycler in North America who converts recyclable materials into valuable products, enabling industrial users to achieve increased operational efficiency. Served as a part of the management team leading the glass division with responsibilities for financial reporting, planning, treasury management and budgetary analysis. Provided financial analysis and strategic support to senior management including profitability and pricing reporting, new business opportunities analysis and financial compilations. Supervised staff of ten employees.

Controller

Direct Energy- Houston, TX- Dec 06 to Oct 08

Direct Energy is wholly owned by Centrica plc one of the world's leading integrated energy companies. They currently have over 34,000 employees and operating in seven countries. Lead finance and accounting partner for power plant divisions. Responsibilities included producing consolidated financial package, variance analysis; prepare annual budget and capital budget on a monthly, quarterly basis to review the operating results in terms of costs, budgets and policies. Developed financial reporting tools to support business managers. Supervised a staff of four employees.

EDUCATION

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, Texas Class of 2007,
GPA: 3.9

Bachelor of Science in Accounting (BS)

Southwestern Oklahoma State University, Weatherford, OK Class of 1997, GPA: 3.62